

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Canadian Institute for Inclusion and Citizenship

We have 2 Work / Learn Project Worker position available for a UBC Social Work Students in Vancouver.

Description:

The student will be an integral member of the Canadian Institute for Inclusion and Citizenship - CIIC team at UBC. The Canadian Institute for Inclusion and Citizenship is Canada's only university-based research institute with a dedicated focus on intellectual disability policy and practice. We work to further the inclusion and full citizenship of people with intellectual disabilities and their families through learning, research and knowledge exchange. The Project Workers will have a range of substantial learning opportunities and specific project assignments.

Dates: Oct 15, 2021 Start Date. April 30, 2022 End Date

Hours: Up to a maximum 10 hours per week. Remote and in-person.

Application: Please forward a cover letter and CV to cic.ubc@ubc.ca by September 30, 2021.